We recognize the importance of health and wellness in the workplace and want to remove the stigma of mental illness by helping post-secondary students with lived experience achieve their education and career goals. The LGM Continuous Learning Bursary was created to empower a youth or adult who is passionate about continuous learning and plans to return to higher education or seek a new learning experience.

Eligibility Criteria

To qualify for the $1,000 LGM Bursary, the applicant must:

- Be at least 19 years of age and a resident of British Columbia
- Have experienced mental illness or substance use challenges and accessed therapeutic support/mental health services
- Demonstrate an education goal for financial assistance
- Identify a job or career goal
- Be currently enrolled in, or accepted to, a fully accredited BC course or program via open or online, distance, or classroom learning by December 1, 2018
- Provide two references

The LGM Continuous Learning Bursary is funded by LGM Financial Services Inc.

*Only electronic submissions will be accepted.
